

← Final Keyword in Java →

Final Keyword :

[o] The final keyword is a non-access modifier that is used to define entities that cannot be changed or modified.

Type

Description

- Final Variable

Variable with final keyword cannot be assign again

- Final Method

Method with final keyword cannot be overridden by its subclasses.

- Final Class

Class with final keywords cannot be extended or inherited from other classes.